In life and in business, we find we have moments that open our eyes to the reality of what we’ve been doing that got us to the place where we are right now, wherever that place is ... good, bad, exceptional or otherwise notable.

While that is the case, there are also moments when we draw a line in the sand and go within to muster up the courage, and give ourselves permission to have more, to be more and to do more in our lives.

Whether it’s more money, or more time, or more of your perfect business customers, Now Is Your Time! Now is your time to draw more from what’s in you to create more in your life and business.

That’s what Women Warrior Goddesses do!

Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote ... “What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.” That is a truth in life. What you do now is more important than whatever you have come through that brought you here.
Most women doubt they have what it takes to create and lead thriving 6 and 7-figure incomes. Why is that?

As a woman entrepreneur and one who has traveled the road of uncertainty, it can feel daunting, especially when you’ve got some gremlins that have a lot of loud talking going on in your head.

It can be scary; however, it can be as scary as it is rewarding. That too is part of the journey that each of us has been on and must continue. It’s also part of the fun.

Much of what we deal with is because of how we’ve been conditioned since childhood. I was brought up during the time when children were often told to ‘go away’, to ‘be seen and not heard’, to ‘disappear’ or worse. We may have been abused, berated and crushed enough such that it or something else caused us to hold our voice.

When you hold your voice, you hold your heart from it’s natural, God-given ability to express itself.

Now the question becomes, how do we change things?

I’m a certified business growth and strategy development coach and after decades in the corporate environment, blessed to build and lead teams and really move in my personal gifts and strengths, I found amazing personal and professional success and fulfillment in my work.

I’m also an Hypnosis, NLP (Neuro Linguistic Programming) and EFT (Emotional Freedom Technique) practitioner. I use these tools in my coaching work. My experience with them is how I’ve built my business and how I’ve helped others to build their businesses.

The true test of who I was as a business woman and a leader came as I entered my entrepreneurial journey. I went through a time when I had my face slapped, my heart broken, my money stolen, and my dreams ridiculed. What I realized was that it was the way I responded to it all, that showed me some things I already knew about myself but had forgotten.

The biggest thing was that I’d been deeply hurt and almost broken. I thought I could mask it, sugar coat it and ignore it, but none of that worked. The day a dear mentor responded to a statement of disappointment I’d made about low attendance at one of my networking groups, was the day I decided, she was right, and it was time to shift my thinking.

She basically told me, how dare I think that my gifts should not be brought into the world. And what I remember is … “Who do you think you are?” Once I got over the shock of it all, I grounded in the fact that I’d done some amazing things and the pity party I was trying to have, wasn’t going to cut it.

What I realized was how I kept getting up and I kept going after many a set-back in my life.

Now, I had a dream for my business and my life that was a BIG VISION and the day I decided to stop hiding and fighting to stay behind the curtain, was the day, I was liberated into a freedom and passion I didn’t know existed.

I want you to have the same liberation and the formula that I used to transform my business and my life. This formula evolved into a system of foundational understanding that when applied, will open the flood gates for your business and making your dreams a reality, just like it did for me.

I don’t say this to brag (although I think we have to learn the right way to brag on ourselves), I say this because it’s very important for me to make sure you know that I feel you. Even if you’ve gotten to the other side, there are things you want to have in order to stay there, and to continue the journey forward.

This entrepreneurial journey is one where the stops along the way are only rest-stops, and you must … women must … we … must keep going. We must align with those who support and celebrate us as we support and celebrate others.

The 5 keys written about in this book are my gift to you to lay your own foundation and lift your head to keep going in strength, courage and wisdom on your “Woman Warrior Goddesspreneur” Journey.

Whether you are a woman who is …

- moving your business forward and feeling like you’re walking through the fog of too much stuff to understand …
dreaming of how you want your life to be and how your business can provide that for you …

learning the things you believe you need into your knowledge base, but you still can’t stay grounded to grow your business any other way but slowly …

feeling there’s a lot of useful information coming from so many places, and most of the time it feels totally overwhelming …

easily getting side-tracked by the ‘shiny objects’ that are flying past your nose, unable to say ‘no’ and totally down on yourself …

thinking that maybe you’re not cut out to be an entrepreneur and you’d be better off finding a job, even though it would break your heart … Or, wishing you had someone who could give you the keys to figuring out how to manage your business and life better …

YOU are who this book was written for!

I get it! I understand … because I’ve been there.

I had a vision of being a millionaire and not so much for the money but for what I could do for my family, in the world, with my business … and guess what …

I spoke it, I thought I was moving in the light of it … and when I realized I was really …

- Hiding in something called “shy”
- Stepping back and turning around to run in the emotional charge of ‘I got used and abused … again’ …

I was done!

I thought I was worthy of my success. I was successful in my corporate career of 30+ years, but I had an identity then that I didn’t have any more. … and I wasn’t 20 or 30 something anymore.
Heck, I wasn’t 40 something any more. My vision of me was something I’d left behind and I knew I did not want to return to ‘the system’ to get it back, so I had to move forward to find me, the strong, beautiful, intelligent, genius me that I’d lost. …

Who I was … really … subconsciously … I was the woman who kept telling myself things that caused me to work for free … giving away my gifts … and to some who totally didn’t deserve it … and those things were lies.

If that’s you, you are not alone.

Realize however, that when you do that, you are not earning your worth, and you are not allowing yourself the chance to participate with an equal exchange of currency, so you can do more, be more.

The system that I’ve developed for myself and that has worked for me and others, is also a system what will work for you. I’ve seen the magic of it for …

- bringing clarity,
- helping to ground in a deep level of self-confidence,
- giving you the ability to see the full picture of your business so you know which parts really require attention now, and
- allowing you the chance to partner in masterminding with other women entrepreneurs who are the community that can support you to help you move your business forward, rapidly, sustainably and holistically/organically grounded in the brilliance that you are, right along with them.

DECIDE you’re worth it and say ‘NO’ to the shadow that’s in the way …

Say ‘YES’ to the you who is that Woman Entrepreneur Warrior Goddess that is longing to be freed.

When your VISION for your business and your life goes farther than you thought you could ever see … how far? 100 years out maybe,

Then and only then will your internal vibration shift to meet you on the journey to your DREAM.

That’s when you know … If you can DREAM IT … You can DO IT!
DREAM IT! DO IT!
VISION, VIBE, VOICE and VISIBILITY in Your Life and Career

There’s no longer space to be

- Stuck
- Held Up ... or
- Side tracked

There’s an amazingly BIG bright space in your personal VIBE when you STOP

- Hiding
- Fighting
- Doubting
- Excusing
- Crying
- Screaming and
- Trippin’

You can create your BIG your Dream and your BIG VISION for your business.

... and I’d like to invite you to be your Best You Warrior Goddesspreneur!!
There comes a time when you just want straight answers, without the hype so you can do this and move with a fierceness and a power that makes you proud of you.

You want something that gives you the steps, so you can get it done easily. You even understand that easily doesn’t mean it won’t be work. It will take work, but it won’t be a journey around the same mountain a dozen times to get it done.

Whether there are things you can do yourself or things you can delegate and outsource, there’s an easy solution and it begins with setting a clear vision of what you want your business to become in 10, 20, 50, even 100 years from now.

Any effort to move your business forward requires vision. If you’re asking the question ‘how’, you’re on the right track. If you’re asking yourself ‘what do I want for 50 or 100 years in the future’, you’re on an even more powerful track.

Here’s the biggest thing I can tell you at this point, without a VISION for your business and your life, you will go nowhere fast, or somewhere ... just not where you might want to go. You might also find yourself somewhere and saying it’s not even close to where you wanted to be.

Can you imagine your business doing well and what that will mean to your family, your soul mate, your highest and best business partners ... for that millionaire success ... How BIG can your business become?

A recent article in Forbes Magazine had that “at the end of 2016, there were 10.8 million millionaires in the US”. I wonder if they had BIG Dreams and BIG VISIONS.

You bet they did and I you want to unleash your BIG VISION for your business.

Don’t worry. What I’m going to share with you next will put things into more perspective and help you get into your dreaming and visioning state.
Create a Mental Movie of the Vision for your Business

We all have something in business and life that we want to achieve. We want to set a clear vision for our business that is not only a stretch, it’s also the BIG VISION!

There are only 2 things that holds anyone back from pursuing their vision, big or small [1] Your self-talk – the subconscious chatter that tells you that you can’t, you’re not worth it, you’re not as good as someone else, there’s more to learn, that doing it from the shadows will be good enough … and …

[2] Not knowing the "How?" – the actions that you will need to take to get on and stay on the path of the journey you’ve set out on.

It is true that most of the time not knowing how to go about forming that BIG VISION, or what you really feel is even achievable can be the cog-in-the-wheel and a reason to stop. Sometimes, it’s the loud volume of the self-doubt that can stop you from creating your vision.

So right now, put all the self-doubt and disbelief to the side. I’ll help you deal with it. No, I want to help you eliminate it, so you can set this BIG Vision.

Whether you believe you can, or believe you can’t, you’re right.

Often, you may believe that you know how to go about setting and achieving the goals that put you on the pathway to your vision. Most times, however, that journey to vision is very short sighted. In that short view, we allow ourselves to fail by simply giving up too soon, by convincing ourselves the BIG VISION was too big and subconsciously telling ourselves not to do the things we need to do. We convince ourselves the vision, the dream for our business isn’t possible after all, and we stop.

TRUTH: Neither you nor your business will ever grow bigger than your vision will allow.

If you’ve got yourself convinced it won’t work, it won’t.

If you’re sure it will be too hard, it will be.
What’s worse is we allow and believe the naysayers and skeptics that may not want us to succeed to offer suggestions that help convince us it won’t work, it can’t be done, or we can’t do it, and they become right. ...WRONG!

There’s one sure way to avert anything that may take you off of the path towards the vision for your business. It’s knowing your purpose and passion. When you see your vision as a fulfillment of your purpose, when it is your passion, your heart’s desire, you are less likely to allow anything to stop you.

“Whether you think you can, or you think you can't – you're right.” -Henry Ford

Creating a mental movie can also increase your chances of success, as it is a simple and creative way to program your mind to believe you can achieve what you want. It can help demolish a negative believe and strengthen a weak one.

Don’t know how to create a mental movie? First, let’s figure out what a mental movie is and why it can be so powerful to help create success.

A mental movie is a creative visualization technique used by Hypnosis and Neuro Linguistic Practitioners to help clients reprogram their mind to overcome fears or phobias, heal past traumas, to achieve work or life goals, or to create visions for the future that allow the subconscious mind to help bring into reality.

If you know the goal you want to achieve then you can take advantage of this powerful tool to help you create a successful outcome. Because a mental movie is the vision of what you want and something you can constantly bring to mind, it will feel like magic when your vision becomes your reality.

I remember the first time I decided I wanted to take a cruise. I got a postcard of the cruise ship I wanted to sail on and I taped it to the front of the file cabinet I had in my office at the time. Not only did I see it all the time, I touched it as I went in and out of that drawer and my subconscious mind kept seeing it. I created a mental movie of myself lounging on the ship, tooling around at the ports of call, and horseback riding on the beach, which is something I try to do on every vacation.

A couple of months after putting up that postcard, out of the blue, I decided to call a friend who I hadn’t spoken to for a while. It was one of those spirit inspired notions to call. I wanted to check in and see how things were going. We’d do that for each other occasionally. I found out she was planning a 7-day group cruise through the Caribbean Islands and it was early enough before the travel date for me to get in on a great payment plan.

That was my first cruise and visiting the islands with a group of friends (new and old) was amazing. I didn’t go horseback riding. Instead, I did a helicopter ride over the Virgin Islands and we flew low enough that I spotted a few friends on one of the golf courses. Needless to say, the cruise and the entire trip was one I will never forget.

While that explains a bit about how to create a mental movie, there are exercises designed to help you create a mental movie. You can also make a Mind Movie, which is a video of your mental movie.

This is also a great time for me to let you know again that I’m a certified accelerated business development coach (what does that mean, and I’ll explain a little later in this book), I’m also a Hypnosis and EFT (Emotional Freedom Technique or ‘Tapping’) practitioner. I often help clients to overcome limiting beliefs, heal past traumas that impact self-esteem and confidence, and open the ability to align in belief with the BIG VISION for their business.

I not only use these techniques, I teach you one of them, so you can have it in your toolbox for use whenever you may have a need, or an opportunity to help someone else.

That leads me to explain a little more about your mental movie. What you create for your BIG VISION is also a vibrational thing. What I mean by that is ... the vibrational alignment with your vision creates a greater connection with your subconscious mind, so you can do the things you want and need to do that will have you accomplishing your milestone goals much more easily.

Before we go there, let me ask you ... How’s your Vision?  Is it BIG?
You’ve probably heard of the ‘Law of Attraction’, right? Well, did you know that there are 3 other Universal laws that are in play at the same time the Law of Attraction is working. That’s how it works, however, when you don’t know this, you might wonder why it doesn’t work.

The Law of Attraction is a Universal Law that creates what you resonate (that which you are) and is what you attract. It’s been taught that what you think, you are and can attract. That’s only partially true.

When the law is working, and you get what you don’t want, versus what you want, you know that something is not right. The truth is that the law is working and the thing that is not right is either what you asked for, or what you resonate in belief that you can get.

The other 3 Universal Laws at work with the LOA are

1. The Law of Resonance – the law that confirms not so much what you think, but what you are (who you are) is what you attract. You attract the truth of who you are that resonates out.

2. The Law of Thrust – this is the law that determines the speed at which a vibration goes out, will determine the speed at which it will return, however, also it requires employing...

3. The Law of Drag – the law that confirm that what is coming to you can in fact reach you, or it will be deflected, and/or something will come other than what you thought … the thing that you want that matches the resonant vibration of who you are.

I’ve distilled this process of aligning with your vibration to be one of getting to know who you are, why you are wanting what you want, and in the wanting, being open to receive it. We remove the doubt so there are no limiting beliefs blocking it, and no self-doubt or negativity that can keep it at bay.
Now comes the question, how do you align with your vibration? You first must understand what your vibration currently is. If you’re in self-doubt, negativity, self-deprecating conversations (even jokingly), your belief systems are showing, and your vibration is at a low level.

You’ve probably heard the saying ‘Be careful what you ask for.” This is exactly why you must be careful. You attract that which you are, not what you want, or think you want. Vibrating at a lower level, means you attract what matches it.

That’s why mental movies are so powerful. The way you integrate the conscious and subconscious minds through viewing your mental movie, is a way to transcend the limiting or negative beliefs and allow the subconscious mind to agree that you truly believe what you want is what you want and that you can have it. And, as another saying goes ... ‘the Universe will conspire to help you get it.’

Limiting Beliefs are Vibes that Negatively Impact Your Actions

There are two additional things that are in play with your vibration.

1. Beliefs ... you must believe you can achieve it, and
2. Actions ... you must take inspired and productive action towards it.

It is in these two additional elements that your vibration will support you right off the bat, or you will see that you are not in alignment. Limiting beliefs of self-doubt or believing you can’t achieve something will reflect in the actions you take, or don’t take with moving your business forward. The lack of inspired and productive action will slow you down or stop you altogether.

When you become aware you’re not in alignment with your vision for your business, or your life, go through the process again.

Determine whether it’s something you want, or what someone else wants for you. You also must determine your deeper why. Why do you want it? Why are you passionate about it? Why do you believe this is aligned with your purpose?

This process of defining your why will require you to be a little more specific with your answer, and cannot be the pat answer, ‘it will make me feel better’.
DREAM IT! DO IT!
VISION, VIBE, VOICE and VISIBILITY in Your Life and Career

The reason of ‘feeling better’ is not what will support you. The truth is, you must already feel better and that’s what a mental movie will do for you.

It is also important to relax, as this is how you will get your subconscious mind to open and be receptive to your mental movie. When you can, find somewhere comfortable and close your eyes while you view your movie. Deep breathe and relax while you play your movie.

Your mental movie will make you feel good about yourself and what’s in the movie. The longer you hold that feeling, the stronger and faster what you desire will come to you.

“When you hold a vibration for 17 seconds or longer, your resonant vibration will be read, and you will attract that which you desire.” - Abraham

If you’re familiar with the teachings of Abraham Esther Hicks, the 17-second rule is one of the best reasons to create a mental movie. You get to stay in the vibration of what you want for a longer period of time. The more you are in the vibration of your movie, the faster what you want will come to you.

This is where the mental programming takes place. You play your mental movie visualizing you living the end goal you set, or things occurring that confirm the impact of the work you did. It is important that your movie is played as if you are living it now. Feel the emotions, experience the sights and sounds. Include all your senses to make the experience feel real.

To make sure that your new mental program is fully installed, repeat viewing your movie every day for at least 30 days for the best effect. That will ensure your VIBE matches your VISION.

"Whatever the mind of man can conceive and believe, it can achieve." - Napoleon Hill
There are volumes written about the value of speaking, especially public speaking. The biggest dilemma that people have is that for speaking, they get so deep into their head stuff that they don’t even recognize that when things flow, when they’re easy and when they are in their genius, is when they are in their heart.

So how does your VOICE play into this?

Simply put, speaking and what comes through your voice, it’s a heart thing. Your heart is the central communicator with every aspect of you. Your body, mind, spirit and soul.

Have you ever talked yourself into experiencing the sweats? Or have you ever created being in pain to avoid something? Have you ever said this ... “oh, you're killing me” and really felt the pain of it with your whole body going limp?

There's a passage in the Bible (Proverbs 18:21) that says, "Life and death are in the power of the tongue." Your voice.

Knowing that, will that make a difference in how you talk to yourself?

So, here's the thing ... What if you spoke to yourself from your heart with empowering, affirming, Warrior Goddess Victorious self-talk? What might you feel like if you talked to yourself like you were your best friend who was giving you loving heartfelt advice, or support? Do you think that would make a difference?

You may have heard this Bible passage as well ... "Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks." (Matthew 12:34)

Yep. And this is something I like to have people think about as well, that is ...

“Open Hearts, Open Hearts!”
What if you went into your next business meeting as the Open Heart? That VIBE gets felt and not just your VOICE, but the voices of others blend to create those business WINS we all talk about. Instead of being scared, be the Open Heart and let your VOICE speak COURAGE. Be in your brilliance.

You will see some powerfully positive results.

I remember my coaching client, Jackie. Jackie is an amazing woman, early 50s and had a graphics design business. She had been in business for 10 years prior to our meeting. I asked her what her biggest challenge was in growing her business.

She cried in anguish that she had always been engaged by a core few web designers who didn't need her graphics services anymore because of the way websites and themes had been evolving. She thought she was wiped out and you could hear it in her VOICE. She started doubting herself. She saw her creative genius not being worth the time or the dollar she was previously commanding.

It wasn’t until we worked on her being the Open Heart for herself first, shifting that negative self-talk and remembering all the great work she’d done, was she able to see re-invention as an opportunity. She was able to see the heart of her work, how she’d enjoyed doing it. The illusion of lack caused a spiral down that not only negatively impacted her vibe, it negatively impacted her flow of revenue.

We were able to reimagine her vision, reinvent how she delivered her work, and she was able to do business differently. It opened the flow of cash/revenue that made Jackie feel life was worth living again.

When Jackie reimagined her vision, and aligned with her vibe, we easily designed a strategy that took her from being behind the scenes and making other people look great, to being in the forefront with her artistic gift of creating branding and social media marketing material, her own included. This also got her some high paying clients and the revenue that she envisioned on the way to her BIG VISION.

Jackie started to see a new VISION of her business and of herself. Because of that, she created a new internal VIBE that equated to a more confident VOICE with a conversation of clarity and value that had referral customers seeking her out.

She was truly speaking her heart when she talked about the work she did and the value she’d placed on it, she was in alignment with charging her worth.

Your VOICE transmits what your heart feels. When you’re in your head, you can bypass the heart connection and you come off inauthentic, talking at your audience and you could even miss the entire message opportunity.

Going through this process, actually through each of these 5 keys, led Jackie to increased VISIBILITY. She was invited to speak at networking events to talk about the art of branding for websites and social media. Jackie now runs a multiple 6-figure business and her team runs social media marketing campaigns for medium to large scale business enterprises.

From the work I did with Jackie, I got clear about the 3 things that are paramount with your VISIBILITY, which I’ll get to in a moment.

First, I want to make sure you understand how powerful the connection is between your voice and your heart. If you’ve ever felt your voice tremble, or you were soft spoken, or sounded so timid or intimidated, you were disconnected from your heart.

If you remember a time you sounded rehearsed or so stiff that you made your listeners nervous or bored, you were disconnected from your heart.

The magic that comes from speaking your heart, comes in the practice of it. Practice makes better. Better becomes mastery. Become a master at speaking from the heart about your business, the value you bring to the world and allow it to resonate with a return called revenue.

Now that you’ve gotten your BIG VISION blueprinted and your VIBE is in sync, your VOICE will let you know when you’ve got a heart connection. Practice delivering your message and strengthen that heart connection.
Practice delivering the vision and mission you’ve crafted for your business. Practice your elevator pitch, the 15-second, 30-second and the 1-minute versions. That practice will not only help you to commit the flow of your message to memory, it will become a stronger foundational element of your VIBE.

Strengthening your VOICE is easy when you know where you’re headed with a clear VISION, and you’ve aligned it with your VIBE.

You will begin to feel the strength of who you are emerge. You will see more of the Warrior Goddesspreneur emerge. You will begin to see the flow back to you of what you have been resonating out, in clients and revenue.

How will increased VISIBILITY change your business and your life? Once you have your VISION, VIBE and VOICE grounded, the rest will be easy and more fun.
Key #4 – The Color of your VISIBILITY

Growing your visibility is the job of a leader. No one can communicate the vision for your business and the importance of your work better than you. Your prime responsibility is to influence others to sharing your vision and help guide them through making their own decisions.

Whether it’s potential clients, investors, or team members for business, or family and friends on the personal side, your ability to influence will determine your level of success.

Leaders understand the need to be visible for business. One of the things I want to share with you is something I learned from my mentor, Rick Justus, CEO of Justus and King, a consulting firm that helps brand to build multi-million and billion dollar companies.

Rick writes in his book “Accelerate Your Effectiveness – Business as Unusual”, where he shares his 12 Practices™ of Accelerated Business Development, that every leader has a responsibility to grow not only their company, but their people as well. I wholeheartedly agree with that and he goes on to say that there are 2 primary jobs of every leader …

1. The architect of the future, and
2. Guardian of the mood.

Now what does that mean?

Rick noted that leaders must learn the ability to influence to the vision for their business. If it isn’t something they can do easily, the vision needs some work.

There are a couple of exercises that I use to help women bring that vision into clear view because it is in that clarity that the rest of this work is done.
As for being the guardian of the mood, it directly relates to the culture of your business. Whether it’s stern and linear, or light and flowing, you as the leader not only set the mood, you are the catalyst for the mood’s pervasiveness through everything your business touches.

Visibility is a key in this process because it is your marketing and your message movement, and more clearly, I have determined visibility to be these 3 things …

[1] Visibility is a message thing … you’ve got to craft the message that fits your ideal audience and know who you’re delivering it to ...

[2] Visibility is a marketing thing … you’ve got to be consistent in your messaging and because you know who you're talking to, you can be heard ...

[3] Visibility is a sales thing … you’ve got to ask for the sale and the 1st person you have to sell is yourself. If you can sell yourself, you can sell your ideal client audience.

I help women entrepreneurs grow sustainable businesses rapidly, in a holistic, staged manner, so they can still have a life and have fun while doing it.

So, here's the deal … if you’re standing … Step In

If you’re sitting, Lean In ...

It is time to Step Up … to Step In … to your … BIG Vision for your business and your life ...

Step In Warrior Goddesspreneur – You Were Made for MORE!

Stand in your VISIBILITY and Give Yourself Permission to be Victorious!

How would it feel to be victorious with growing your business? We see women who get recognized for having done it for themselves, let this be your turn to do it for you.
How would you define a VICTORY for your business?

Would it be in ...

- attracting that magic number of your ideal clients that you can help?
- earning the revenue that puts your business in a steady stream of more income to create the lifestyle business that is your VISION?
- finally getting grounded in the knowledge that you can do this and that there are so many other opportunities awaiting you that you may not have even thought of because your VIBE is in sync with your heart?
- knowing that whenever you speak about your business to an individual, to a group, from a stage, or in front of a camera, you have the VOICE that expresses strength, courage and wisdom?
- having the VISIBILITY and being seen as well as heard by those who are searching or otherwise in need of you to solve their problem(s)?

Answers to these questions are what have been designed throughout this book to help you to understand that this is the formula for creating your 6 or 7-figure Goddesspreneur enterprise.

The visioning exercises are so important to be completed first because you must see yourself as the Victor before you begin.

Steven Covey wrote in “The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People”, Habit 2: Begin with the End in Mind. Habit 2 is based on imagination – the ability to envision in your mind what you cannot at present see with your eyes.

When you see and hold the VISION of your successful business, especially now that you’ve walked through the 4 keys prior to this one, you have the ability to align your VIBE (inner vibration) more easily with your vision.
Because of your heart connection, you can VOICE your message with more clarity, passion and depth. And when you stand in the VISIBILITY of who you are, you will claim the clients, the team, the revenue and the future you’ve dreamed of for your business. That is a VICTORY!

The 5th key in this process is an emphatic ... Give Yourself Permission to Be VICTORIOUS! See the victory from the beginning.
To wrap things up, you now have something sound to work with so that Dreaming SMALL is a thing of the past.

Are you done with learning the hard way, costing you years of effort and countless dollars to get just one piece of the puzzle to move your business exponentially forward? And it’s not so much about investing in yourself, but it is about investing wisely in yourself.

Wise investing comes from lessons learned from not so smart investing and from the lessons others have learned that you trust, and who will share what they learned with you.

I am of the practice and belief that you don’t have to go around any mountain if someone is giving you a pass to ride the train through it because of their sharing what they’ve learned.

The bonus is the learning that you will gain will help you to navigate every mountain that is found in your path as you are on the Goddesspreneur journey to building your purposeful, wonderful business.

“We teach best that which we’ve learned.” - Cynthia Gardner O’Neill

Along with that, it’s proven and something that I share ... there are 3 things that are the foundation of understanding and operating for rapid and sustainable business growth ...
If you want the system that can quadruple your efforts and your income, these 5 keys are the beginning.

You will continue to block your success, finding it will elude you at every turn if you’re …

- Confused about what to do next in your business
- Not moving more quickly, hiding in excuses of ‘I’m shy’, or ‘I’m not as good as …’, or ‘I don’t know if I can do it’
- Without setting achievable goals for your business
- Without setting a BIG vision for your business
- Feeling stuck in a short-term vision for your business (i.e., through the end of this or next year) which is way too short a view.

If you’re feeling …

- Stuck
- Scared
- Side-tracked
- Doubting and
- Disappointed to the point of Complaining (It’s too hard, I’m not feeling supported, etc.) …

STOP!!

How does that feel for you? Does it make you feel giddy or well up with emotion inside?

What if you created a vision and a plan to grow your business, rapidly and easily?

What if you created the vision for your lifestyle that your business was instrumental in bringing you into?

Dream It! See the VISION of it. Hold the VIBE of it. Let the song of it resonate from your heart through your VOICE. Then, see yourself Step In to it … the VISIBILITY of you doing it. The VISIBILITY of you in your business, making it happen.

That is your VISION, VIBE, VOICE and VISIBILITY and your journey of VICTORY!
I want to help you not just Dream It! But also to Do It!

To Dream BIG and Step Up to Step In to your BIG Business VICTORY!

Transformational Women’s Empowerment and Business Development Program Available

VISION: Women entrepreneurs must see the long view for their businesses and their lives. Being on purpose and having a mindset resolute to see your vision become your reality brings victory.

VIBE: The vibration of who you are reveals how grounded in confidence you are. Master your Inner Me and make your heart the center of your business. Destroying limiting and negative beliefs increases your vibration, increasing your revenue.

VOICE: Your voice is the vibrational instrument from which all business is initiated and closed. Communicate from the heart to not only be heard, be felt. Close more and earn more revenue with your heart message.

VISIBILITY: When your message is seen and heard in the market place, those who need what you have can find you. Mastering your message for sales and marketing creates revenue from a courage and confidence you can easily keep strengthened.
